PREFACE TO VOL. II.

THIS Volume of the printed copy of the Registers of LINTON PARISH CHURCH gives the contents of the three volumes or books of registers numbered III, IV, and V, and brings the record of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials down to the year 1812.

Vol. (or book) III measures $15\frac{1}{4} \times 10$ inches, is bound in rough leather, and contains 92 pp. of paper, the last $13\frac{3}{4}$ pp. being blank. This is a record of Banns and Marriages (only) during the period 1754-1778. A copy of the Marriage Act of 1753, 26 Geo. II, is bound up with this book.

Vol. (or book) IV measures $14 \times 10\frac{1}{4}$ inches, is bound in rough leather, and contains 70 leaves of parchment, 140 pp. Of these, 120 pp. are devoted to entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1779 to 1812:—then follow one or two blank pages, and the remainder contain three Terriers of the Glebe lands, etc., dated respectively 4th July, 1781, 30th June, 1786, and 28th June, 1809. On the last page of this book is a quaint and interesting description of the positions of the graves of persons buried within the Church at Linton from 1789 to 1803.

Vol. (or book) V measures $18\frac{1}{2} \times 11\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and is strongly bound in rough leather. It contains about 120 leaves (240 pp.) of paper and is a record of Marriages only, from 1778 to 1812. These entries occupy only the first 35 pp. of the book (and 3 of these are blank)—the rest are unused.

All these books (III, IV, and V) are more or less in a good state of preservation, though in places the illiteracy of the scribe (?) the parish clerk) occasionally raises a difficulty, and often a smile!

As promised in the Preface to the former volume, there is here given a complete Index to the whole transcript of these Registers (1562 to 1812), which I trust may be of service to those who may have occasion to consult this portion of the records of the ancient parish of Linton.

VOL. III.

BANNS AND MARRIAGES ONLY, 1754 TO 1778.

[In this book (Vol. III.) there are four entry forms on each page, and both pages and entries are numbered consecutively. It is not deemed necessary to reproduce the numbering here, and therefore it is omitted for the sake of brevity].

The entries are as a rule filled up thus, the words in heavier type being the printed form:—

[Copy]

[The rest of this book is made up thus:—Immediately following, five whole pages blank, then an “Exact Terrier of Linton Rectory Glebe lands” (date 1781) four pages; after which another Terrier (four pages) dated 1786; and another (four pages) dated 1809; then two blank pages, and on the last page of the book is an interesting description (in 22 lines) of the positions of several intra-mural graves at Linton Church (date 1789—1803).]

END OF VOL. IV.

LINTON PARISH REGISTERS.

VOL. V.

MARRIAGES ONLY (1778—1812.)

The pages in this book (Vol. V.) are headed thus :—

“MARRIAGES AT.....FOR THE YEAR.....”

and contain eight columns with headings as follows, viz. :—

- (1) “When Married.”
- (2) “Names of Persons Married.”
- (3) “The Man’s Profession.”
- (4) “Title” (i.e., Bachelor or Spinster, etc.)
- (5) “Age.”
- (6) “Banns or License.”
- (7) “By Whom Married.”
- (8) “In Whose Presence Married.”

[In this transcript the entries have been slightly abbreviated with a view to economising space. Thus, the age of the contracting parties is indicated by the figures in brackets after their names. And, further, it should be noted that they are Bachelors and Spinsters, except where otherwise stated. Also that from 1793 to 1812 the Officiating Minister was the Rev. John Bentham, Curate, except in one or two instances which have been duly noted.]
